Easter Sunday: Resurrection of the Lord

Easter Week

Easter Sunday, we read from the Acts of the Apostles to hear Peter's preaching about the Resurrection. The Letter to the Colossians reminds us "You have died and your lives are hidden with Christ in God." The Gospel is from John's Gospel and gives us the first story of that Easter morning - Mary Magdalene discovers the empty tomb and runs to Peter and the "disciple Jesus loved" to tell them. They run to the tomb and discover for themselves that it is empty.

The first reading for Easter Week is from the Acts of the Apostles. We hear Peter's preaching the Good News and experience the first deeds of the Apostles, which parallel the acts of Jesus, including the conflicts he experienced and his power to heal.

The Gospels this week are all resurrection appearances. These wonderful stories contain some common elements. They appear designed to make it clear that this was not a group of disciples who dreamed up the resurrection, because they were hoping for it so much. In fact, they found it difficult to believe. The Jesus they saw and experienced was not a "ghost." Instead, he had a body.

Monday, is the story of Jesus appearing to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, as well as the "cover-up story" and pay off of the guards. Tuesday, we read of Jesus' appearance to Mary Magdalene, through the eyes of John's Gospel. Jesus missions her to announce the Good News to his brothers. On Wednesday we are treated to Luke's marvelous story of Jesus' appearance to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. They were sad, because they had hoped the story would have turned out differently. Jesus tells them why he had to first suffer and die in order to enter into his glory. As they stopped to eat, "he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread." Thursday Jesus appears in the room where the disciples are gathered. "Peace be with you" he says and then eats with them and shows them his wounds. On Friday, we have the powerful appearance in John's Gospel at the Sea of Tiberias. Peter decided to return to fishing. Jesus appears and re-missions him. On Saturday, the week concludes with the summary of appearances in what appears to be an addition to the end of Mark's Gospel.

On the Second Sunday of Easter, as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, we get a picture of how the early community gathered around as "Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles." John's Gospel gives us two post-resurrection stories that feature Thomas, the doubting apostle. "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

MORE FROM GOD'S PRECIOUS CHILDREN!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

A mother was teaching her 3-year-old the Lord's Prayer. For several evenings at bedtime she repeated it after her mother. One night she said she was ready to solo. The mother listened with pride as the child carefully enunciated each word, right up to the end of the prayer. "Lead us not into temptation," she prayed, "but deliver us some e-mail".

Father, we ask that you look with favor upon those who will prayerfully select our new bishop. Give them a Spirit of wisdom and counsel that they may discern your will.

Divine Mercy Sunday
May 1st - Hour of Great Mercy 2:30 - 3:30 pm

At the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II said, "It is important that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church, will be called "Divine Mercy Sunday."

And so began the celebration of the greatest attribute of God – His great Mercy. The attribute that exists because of God’s great love for us. This day of celebration is a day of extraordinary graces freely given by Christ to all who approach the Fount of His Mercy – receive Holy Communion on this day. Christ himself told Sr. Faustina that “the soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.” [Diary no. 699] What a wonderful opportunity! Complete remission of all sin and all punishment due to sin! And, all we have to do is what we normally do – Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Receive the Eucharist on Divine Mercy Sunday. It is not necessary to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday, but it is necessary to receive the Eucharist, as long as we do not have the stain of unconfessed mortal sin on our souls. The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us — all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month

Reporting Suspected Abuse Takes

Courage: When any adult in the faith community has reason to suspect that a child is being or has been abused, he or she has a moral (and often a legal) responsibility to report those suspicions to civil authorities. Reporting suspected abuse takes courage. However, adults who take a stand for children and make the call are often responsible for saving a child from a terrible torment. To report abuse, call the Florida Department of Children and Families at 1-800-96ABUSE or Judy Pinson, the diocesan victim assistance coordinator at (904) 262-3200, Ext.129.

Take the Child Safety Quiz: Parents, guardians, and adults who care for children face constant challenges when trying to help keep children safer in today’s fast-paced world. The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) offers easy-to-use safety resources to help address these challenges. NCNEC’s website offers a range of practical information for parents and guardians that will help keep children safe from harm. The site also features an interactive quiz on child safety designed for both adults and children. To take the quiz, visit www.missingkids.com and click on “Child Safety”.
