Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Second Week of Ordinary Time

The Second Sunday of Ordinary Time offers us beautiful readings. From the Prophet Isaiah: "I will make you a light to the nations..." In John's Gospel John the Baptist and his followers see Jesus as he walks toward them. John says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.'"

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Anthony, abbot. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Agnes, virgin and martyr.

The first reading this week continues with the Letter to the Hebrews. Written to inspire and encourage the community in its faith, he exhorts them "not become sluggish, but imitators of those who, through faith and patience, are inheriting the promises."

As we continue Mark's Gospel on the weekdays, Jesus is asked why his disciples don't fast. He challenges the religious leaders to have a completely open mind and heart to his teaching because "new wine is poured into fresh wineskins." Jesus is the Lord of the Sabbath, bringing a new freedom. It is only chapter 3 in the gospel, but we already see the tension with religious leaders building. Because Jesus heals a withered hand on the Sabbath, the Pharisees seek to kill him. Jesus withdraws and people from the surrounding regions come to him, and even the demons know who he is. Jesus names twelve Apostles to be with him, to preach and to drive out demons. Jesus' relatives think he's "out of his mind" because so many people are coming to him that he can't even eat. The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time brings us to a cycle of Matthew's gospels during every Sunday of Ordinary Time this year. This week we see the call of the first disciples as Jesus stops Andrew and his brother, Peter on the beach. "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men". At once they left their nets and followed him."

Annulments

Questions about Annulments? Deacon Paul Pettie would like to host a class on Annulments. If you have ever had questions, or would like to know more, please call or email the church office, or contact Deacon Paul at sanjuandeacon@gmail.com, or John Meyers at usmc75ret@windstream.net. We are trying to get a sense of how many are interested in such a class.

Father, we ask that you look with favor upon those who will prayerfully select our new bishop. Give them a Spirit of wisdom and counsel that they may discern your will.
