January 2, 2011 Epiphany of the Lord

Second Week of Christmas

On Sunday, January 2, the US will celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord, although most of the world will celebrate it on Thursday, January 6. The Epiphany celebrates the light that has come into the darkness of the world and that our salvation was made known to the Gentiles. Outside of the US, the Second Sunday of Christmas is celebrated, with the beginning of John's Gospel and its poetic images of light and the Word.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, religious. Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint John Neumann, bishop. The different days of celebrating the Epiphany means that readings are mostly the same, but used on different days during the week.

The Gospels this week are from all four gospel writers, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. We read of Jesus traveling through Galilee "teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people." He feeds loaves and fishes to the hungry and exhorts his disciples, "Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid!" when they are caught in a storm at sea. When he reads from the scriptures at the synagogue, he proclaims, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." He meets a leper: "Lord, if you wish, you can make me clean." Jesus heals him. John tells his followers he is not the Christ. "He must increase; I must decrease."

Sunday is the Baptism of the Lord. We hear the Lord say in the first reading from Isaiah, "Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit." That is echoed in Luke's Gospel, after Jesus' baptism: "And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." This feast marks the end of the Christmas season and on Monday we begin Ordinary Time on the Church calendar.

May God Bless You

With the generous support from our parishioners, we were able to completely pay off our loan for the patio cover in August. We appreciate the many generous donations for this project. In place of your roof donations, we ask anyone who would like to donate toward future expansion to continue to do so. All future expansion project collections will go to help pay our property mortgage with the Diocese. We hope that with your help, we can pay this mortgage off in a matter of a few short years. We are truly blessed by our generous parishioners here at San Juan Mission.

Thank You

Happy 85th Birthday
Veronica

From the Diocese-

The festive season of Christmas will conclude next week with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Jesus' baptism is a significant moment in his public ministry. As we celebrate this feast we recall our own baptism and renew our baptismal commitment. It is fitting that this feast marks the beginning of National Vocation Awareness Week. Consider participating in our special celebration next week. For more information on vocations, visit 222.dosafl.com/vocations or call (904) 262-3200, ext. 101

The St. Jude's Ranch for Children is accepting all types of greeting cards, front only (without writing on them). The recycled cards are then sold, with all proceeds going directly back to abused, abandoned and neglected children at the three ranches. Card fronts can be mailed to: St. Jude's Ranch for Children, 100 St. Jude's St., Boulder city, NV 89005-1681. You may also turn card fronts into the church office, and we will mail them

YOUTH CHOIR

The next youth mass will be January 16, 2011! We will continue Friday afternoon practices through January 7, then we will move them to Monday afternoons from 3:30-4:30 pm. Songs for January are:
We are the Light of the World ~ You are Near
We are Many Parts ~ They'll Know We are Christians

First Friday

You are cordially invited to the First Friday Mercy Hour of Prayers. We sing the prayer given to Sister Faustina from our Lord at 3 PM. Then we say Prayers for the Sick. After we pray for the needs of the parish, we have Benediction from either Father or the Deacon and then we celebrate First Friday Mass. This is a very special hour of Mercy and many graces are received for all who participate and who are being prayed for, come join your parish family and receive these graces! As St. Alphonsus Liguori noted, "of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us." (CCC 1418) Adoration begins at 11:00 am.

The San Juan Office

As most of you know, Angie is leaving the office position to pursue her dream of becoming a midwife. She is attending a 3-year course in Gainesville, and will not be able to keep up her studies and maintain the office at the same time. We have found a replacement Secretary/Bookkeeper who will begin her training this Monday, January 3. Her name is Doris Jackson, and we have high hopes that she will be a wonderful addition to our San Juan family. We encourage you all to drop by and introduce yourselves to Doris in the coming weeks.
