Sacraments

Baptism: At least one godparent must be a practicing Catholic. Parents and godparents must attend a Baptism class. To register, call the church office.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage should meet with the priest at least eight months prior to the date of the celebration. No date can be reserved until the pre-nuptial investigation has been completed.

Reconciliation: Sunday and Wednesday 10 minutes before mass, or by appointment.

Anointing of the Sick: Anointing of the Sick is for the comfort and strength of the ill, especially the aged. It is not just for those in the immediate danger of death. The sacraments are celebrated for the living. When someone you love is homebound or hospitalized, please let us know so arrangements can be made to minister to them.

Funerals: In the event of a death in your immediate family, please call the priest at St. Madeleine's Church (386)454-2358.

Membership Information: If you wish to become a member of the church, or to sign up for a church ministry, please pick up a registration form found at the back of the church, or call the church office. We can also email or fax forms.

Intentions for Loved Ones: If you would like to have a mass said for your loved one, sponsor the tabernacle light, or sponsor the mass hosts in memory of a loved one, please call or email the church office. If your intention is for a specific date, please call the office well in advance, as dates fill up quickly.

Announcement and Bulletin Requests: To place an ad in the bulletin, or if you have an announcement, please email your request to sanjuancruz@live.com, or turn in your written request to the office no later than Wednesday noon of the week you wish your article to appear in the bulletin.

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Twenty-Seventh Week of Ordinary Time

A parable about tenants who were entrusted with their master's fields is at the center of the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. We hear Jesus really challenge the religious leaders with this story of the tenant farmers who refused to listen to the master's servants (the prophets) and abused and killed his son (Jesus) in an attempt to usurp his inheritance. Jesus tells them, "Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Tuesday is the Memorial of the beloved Saint Francis of Assisi. Friday is the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary. The first readings this week offer again a sampling of several different Old Testament sources including the reluctant prophet, Jonah; then Malachi ("But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays"); and Joel, ("Then shall you know that I, the LORD, am your God, dwelling on Zion, my holy mountain; Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall pass through her no more.") Luke's Gospel continues during the weekdays with some of our most familiar and beloved stories. The Good Samaritan teaches us about loving. In the Mary and Martha story, Jesus nudges his dear friend Martha to calm her spirit and choose carefully what she spends time on. Luke offers a look at Jesus praying alone before sharing his prayer with us. With the story of the friend banging on the door in the night, Jesus encourages us to "ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." When his opponents try to confuse the people about Jesus' authority, he says, "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters." We end the week with Jesus emphasizing his relationship with the Father as being stronger than earthly relationships.

In the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the story from Matthew about the King who gave a banquet for his son and invited many guests. It is a powerful story about rejecting Jesus' own invitation and about God's universal invitation to a new group of "chosen" people.

2011 Wedding Anniversary Celebration

Couples observing a 25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, 45th, 50th (or more) wedding anniversary between January 1 - December 31, 2011 are invited to participate in the 2011 Anniversary Celebration with Bishop Felipe Estévez on Saturday, November 19, 2011, 1:00 PM at Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church, 545 A1A North, Ponte Vedra Beach, Fl. You may register on-line at www.dsfl.org or by calling (904) 308-7474. Registration deadline is November 15th.

Religious Education News:

For the safety of all children, the Diocese requires that all students must be signed out from Religious Education Classes each Sunday. Students are required to remain in Social Hall until they are signed out. For your convenience, the sign out clipboard is available anytime after Mass. Thank you.

Wednesday Evening Mass

There will be no 6:00 pm Mass on Wednesday, October 5th. However, there will be a Communion Service followed by a Novena to the Blessed Mother. Wednesday evening Masses will resume as usual on October 12th.

Also, please note that there will be no Mass on First Friday, October 7th. First Friday will begin with Adoration and end with Benediction. First Friday Masses will resume in November.

Preparing for some wording changes in our Liturgy

Over the next several weeks we will be placing inserts into our bulletin to assist us all in preparing for the wording changes in our Liturgy -- our Mass. In all of this we must remember one guiding thought -- "some new words -- the same Mass." As we pray and prepare for the dawn of a new Advent we will come to realize that the more important goal of the next eight weeks is the realization of why we come to Mass.

Saturday Evening Mass

There will be a Spanish Mass every Saturday at 7:30 pm through the month of November. Fr. Sebastian will be saying Mass as usual on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of the month. Fr. Manolo Puga will be saying the Saturday evening Mass on all other Saturdays. If Masses are to continue every Saturday after November, an announcement will be placed in the bulletin.
