Sacraments

Baptism: At least one godparent must be a practicing Catholic. Parents and godparents must attend a Baptism class. To register, call the church office.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage should meet with the priest at least eight months prior to the date of the celebration. No date can be reserved until the pre-nuptial investigation has been completed.

Reconciliation: Sunday and Wednesday 10 minutes before mass, or by appointment.

Anointing of the Sick: Anointing of the Sick is for the comfort and strength of the ill, especially the aged. It is not just for those in the immediate danger of death. The sacraments are celebrated for the living. When someone you love is homebound or hospitalized, please let us know so arrangements can be made to minister to them.

Funerals: In the event of a death in your immediate family, please call the priest at St. Madeleine's Church (386)454-2358.

Membership Information: If you wish to become a member of the church, or to sign up for a church ministry, please pick up a registration form found at the back of the church, or call the church office. We can also email or fax forms.

Intentions for Loved Ones: If you would like to have a mass said for your loved one, sponsor the tabernacle light, or sponsor the mass hosts in memory of a loved one, please call or email the church office. If your intention is for a specific date, please call the office well in advance, as dates fill up quickly.

Announcement and Bulletin Requests: To place an ad in the bulletin, or if you have an announcement, please email your request to sanjuancruz@live.com, or turn in your written request to the office no later than Wednesday noon of the week you wish your article to appear in the bulletin.

October 23rd, 2011 Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Thirtieth Week of Ordinary Time

Justice and compassion are keys to loving, in the readings for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Exodus proclaims God's call that we act justly toward foreigners, and the most vulnerable among us: widows, orphans and the poor. Jesus says it most simply: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. ... You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Friday is the Feast of Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Apostles.

The first reading all week continues with the third week of Paul's longest letter, the Letter to the Romans, with his teaching of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Gospel of Luke offers a glimpse of Jesus healing and teaching the people, even as he continues to clash with religious leaders. He cures the "bent woman" on a Sabbath and tells of the tiny mustard seed which develops to become a full grown bush. He repeats that it will not be easy to enter the Kingdom: "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." He defies those who bring word of threats on his life and defies the silent Pharisees who watch as he cures a man on the Sabbath. Jesus encourages us to be humble: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." That line from Luke is echoed in the gospel for the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time as Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." He encourages us to turn away from honors and titles and to take the lowest place at the banquet.

November - The month of All Soul's

We are quickly approaching the month of November and with that our thoughts will be turning to all the souls of the faithful departed which we always remember and honor in a special way during this month.

Our All Soul's Mass intention basket will be located on the table in the back of the church beginning Sunday, October 30th. Please write the names of those you wish to be remembered on an envelope, place your Mass intention donation inside the envelope and then place the envelope in our All Soul's basket. These envelopes will remain on the altar throughout the month and all those listed will be remembered at all the Masses during the month of November and will be placed in our book of remembrance.

All Saints Day Mass, which is a holyday of obligation, will be celebrated at San Juan Mission on Tuesday, November 1st at 6 pm.

All Soul's Day Mass, and special memorial service, will be celebrated at San Juan Mission on Wednesday, November 2nd at 6 pm.

If you have suffered the loss of a loved one from November 2010 thru October of 2011 and would like to have them remembered in our special All Soul's Mass memorial, please contact the church office to place their names on our list to be read during the Mass.

Announcement

Just a reminder that beginning November 1st San Juan's business office will remain closed on Sunday. There have been instances, on occasion, that the office has been left unsecured for periods of time on Sunday morning. Diocesan guidelines for privacy and security frown upon this practice. The protection of the private information of our parishioners and the business and financial records of our parish has become more and more important during the past several years. We must adjust to this new environment for everyone's protection. Office business may be conducted Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 12:30 pm. Please feel free to call or stop by during normal business hours. Also, you are welcome to email any concerns or requests 24 hours a day, seven days a week to sanjuan-cruz@live.com. Although the office closes at 12:30 pm, the email is checked periodically afternoons, evenings and weekends. If you are in need of a Mass intention, you can place your request along with payment in an envelope, write "Office" on the front and place in the collection basket or in the office mail slot in the hallway next to the copy machine.

Preparing for some wording changes in our Liturgy

The First Sunday of Advent

We are only about 5 weeks from switching to our (few) new words in the celebration of Mass -- the first Sunday of Advent, November 27th. The words -- all the words of our Mass, are PRAYER! They are meant to express and deepen our relationship as Jesus' disciples, with his Father in the power of his Holy Spirit. A couple of our parishioners have mentioned that understanding that our Mass has not changed and that these "new words" are mostly and simply a better translation of our beautiful Latin Mass, has helped them to realize the importance of our Mass as Prayer and communion with God. As we prepare for the first Sunday of Advent, let us keep this in mind.

Fall Flea Market St. Madeleine Catholic Church

St Madeleine's invites everyone to join in the festivities of their "Fall Flea Market" on Saturday, November 5th. Please mark your calendars!

Also, 12 x 12 spaces are available for rent. If you would like to rent a booth, applications can found on the bulletin board in the social hall. Please fill out both sheets and return with you check to St. Madeleine's office as soon as possible.
