Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thirty-First Week of Ordinary Time

On the Thirty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time we have Luke's marvelous account of Jesus' encounter with the wealthy tax collector, Zacchaeus from Luke's Gospel. Watching from a tree, he is invited by Jesus: "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house."

Monday is the Solemnity of All Saints, with Matthew's Gospel offering us the Beatitudes. Tuesday is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls), also with its own special readings.

The first readings this week are from Paul's wonderful Letter to the Philippians.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, Jesus talks about not only inviting all the "right" people into our lives, but to include "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind." "For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." Then Jesus tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their possessions to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. In answer to the Pharisees' criticism of Jesus eating and drinking with sinners, Jesus tells parables of the man who finds his lost sheep and the woman with the lost coin, both of whom rejoice in finding what was lost. Jesus tells the parable of the dishonest steward who is caught overcharging his master's customers and saves himself by cutting his master's prices. Jesus praises his enterprise: "the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than the children of light." Finally, Jesus says that we can't have two masters, trying to love God and money. When a Pharisee sneered at him, he said: "what is of human esteem is an abomination in the sight of God."

On the Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, in Luke's Gospel, the Sadducees ask sly questions of Jesus, hoping to confuse him on the idea of a Resurrection. Jesus refutes them by quoting Moses: "the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." Bishop Galeone's Golden Jubilee and Retirement Event

This year Bishop Galeone will celebrate his Golden Jubilee of Priestly Ordination, and also reach the canonical age for retirement from office. At the bishop's request both his farewell from office and ordination jubilee will be combined into one event - a Mass to be celebrated on Saturday, Nov. 13, 2010 at 11 a.m. at St. Joseph Church, Jacksonville. A reception will follow at the Cody Enrichment Center on the parish campus.

WANTED: KITCHEN MANAGER

We need someone to oversee the kitchen. Sandy Newman has done a great job overseeing the kitchen for a good while but she's ready to retire her kitchen apron. There are several who can help out, but we need some one to oversee the kitchen. This is an IMMEDIATE MINISTRY! We need to fill this position, or we will not be able to keep refreshments after mass. Please contact the church office if you feel a calling to this ministry.

San Juan Youth Group will meet November 7, 5:30 pm, in the Social Hall. All Middle and High School youth are invited to attend.

Rest In Peace
Marsha Hertel

Our deepest sympathy is extended to George Hertel on the passing of his beloved wife, and our dear friend and sister in Christ, Marsha.

We pray that Our Lord will strengthen and sustain George and his family during this difficult period.

This is a very special hour of Mercy and many graces are received for all who participate and who are being prayed for, come join your parish family and receive these graces!
