Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Twenty-Eighth Week of Ordinary Time

In the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the story from Matthew about the King who gave a banquet for his son and invited many guests. It is a powerful story about rejecting Jesus' own invitation and about God's universal invitation to a new group of "chosen" people.

Saturday is the Memorial of the wise and wonderful Teresa of Avila, Saint Teresa of Jesus, doctor of the Church.

We begin reading Paul's Letter to the Romans for our first reading this week. After a powerful introduction, Paul writes this community in Rome about God's righteousness (mercy or kindness) and justification (making us holy or one with God) which comes to us, not through the law but through faith in Jesus.

Each day we move through Luke's gospel as people gather around Jesus. He declines to give a sign other than the sign of Jonah. At a Pharisee's house Jesus calls for authenticity: "give alms and everything will be clean for you." He challenges the religious practices of the Pharisees which miss the heart of fidelity to God and mercy toward others. Jesus tries to get them to see that, while they honor the prophets, they are no better than their ancestors who ignored and killed the prophets. Instead of hearing him, the religious leaders plot to trap Jesus. Warning his disciples about imitating religious hypocrisy, Jesus tells them not to be afraid, even of death, but to only fear losing their souls. Acknowledging Jesus is enough to save us. When we make our defense of our faith and way of life, the Holy Spirit will teach us what to say.

On the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time we see Matthew's gospel tell us of the Pharisee plot to set a trap for Jesus. This time they use politics to see if he will offend either Rome or the people. Should they pay Rome's census tax? Jesus pushes the challenge back to them: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." What is it they must repay to God that is God's? Their trust in Jesus -- God's gift to them.

“Catholicism” Documentary Series

“Catholicism,” a multi-part documentary series, will air on public television (WJCT-Jacksonville) beginning in October. The documentary is hosted by Father Robert Barron, the Cardinal Francis George Professor of Faith and Culture and Mundelein Seminary and a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. In this sweeping series, Father Barron tells the story of Catholicism around the world using art, architectural and artistic masterpieces and most sacred places: The Dome of The Rick, the Hagia Sophia, the Tomb of Mother Teresa, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, rare views of the Pantheon, St. Peter’s Basilica, the Sistine Chapel and the Pope’s private gardens, Chartres, Notre Dame and Cologne Cathedrals, as well as the feast of the Ugandan martyrs. The four different 60-minute episodes can be seen on WJCT-TV (check you cable listing) Oct. 13th at 9 p.m., Oct 13th at 10 p.m., Oct. 20th at 9 p.m., and Oct 20th at 10 p.m. Visit www.catholicismseries.com for more information and for other program options.

Saturday Evening Mass

There will be a Spanish Mass every Saturday at 7:30 pm through the month of November. If Masses are to continue every Saturday after November, an announcement will be placed in the bulletin.

Preparing for some wording changes in our Liturgy

Today the insert refers to ‘embracing change in the liturgy.’ Because of the changes in our liturgy, slight though they might be, we have a unique opportunity to grow not only in the knowledge of our liturgy, but to grow in, or renew, our love for our liturgy. We will need to talk about the changes in language, but we will have to consider that we may have forgotten some of the basics, or realize that we may have come to take them for granted. We go back to our first question; Why is it that we gather for liturgy? Vatican II called on us to ‘full and active participation.’ How might we enter more fully, consciously and actively into the mystery of the mass? Remember our guiding principal -- ‘while some of the words of the mass are changing, the mass itself is not.’ The mass is our focus. Why do we gather for mass?

Emergency Contact Information

In an effort to better serve our parishioners and clergy, San Juan’s office is in the process of updating emergency contact information. If your home or cell telephone numbers have changed or if, by chance, these phone numbers were not provided to the office, please feel free to email them to sanjuancruz@live.com or call the office direct at 935-2632 and your records will be updated. We appreciate your assistance in this effort.
