Sacraments

Baptism: At least one godparent must be a practicing Catholic. Parents and godparents must attend a Baptism class. To register, call the church office.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage should meet with the priest at least eight months prior to the date of the celebration. No date can be reserved until the pre-nuptial investigation has been completed.

Reconciliation: Sunday and Wednesday 10 minutes before mass, or by appointment.

Anointing of the Sick: Anointing of the Sick is for the comfort and strength of the ill, especially the aged. It is not just for those in the immediate danger of death. The sacraments are celebrated for the living. When someone you love is homebound or hospitalized, please let us know so arrangements can be made to minister to them.

Funerals: In the event of a death in your immediate family, please call the priest at St. Madeleine's Church (386)454-2358.

Membership Information: If you wish to become a member of the church, or to sign up for a church ministry, please pick up a registration form found at the back of the church, or call the church office. We can also email or fax forms.

Intentions for Loved Ones: If you would like to have a mass said for your loved one, sponsor the tabernacle light, or sponsor the mass hosts in memory of a loved one, please call or email the church office. If your intention is for a specific date, please call the office well in advance, as dates fill up quickly.

Announcement and Bulletin Requests: To place an ad in the bulletin, or if you have an announcement, please email your request to sanjuancruz@live.com, or turn in your written request to the office no later than Wednesday noon of the week you wish your article to appear in the bulletin.

August 7th, 2011 Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Nineteenth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Elijah finds God not in the thunder and driving wind, but in a gentle breeze. We repeat the gospel we heard a few days ago as Peter's fear gets the best of him, when Jesus calls him out of his boat in a stormy sea. Peter takes his eyes off of Jesus and would have perished without Jesus' rescuing him.

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Dominic, priest. Wednesday is the Feast of Saint Lawrence, deacon and martyr. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Clare, virgin.

In the first readings this week from Deuteronomy, we hear about the entry into the Promised Land. Moses says farewell to the people. Then we have readings from the Book of Joshua, who was the successor of Moses. The people cross the Jordan, with the Ark of the Covenant clearing a path through the river. Joshua speaks to the people as a prophet and recounts all God has done for them. The people renew their covenant at Shechem.

In the daily readings from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus again warns his disciples about his upcoming passion, death and resurrection, but they are "overwhelmed with grief." Jesus resolves the temple tax question, as if to say, "it will be given you." When the disciples are wondering about "who is the greatest," Jesus points to a child and says the greatest is the one who is humble, like the defenseless child. He tells them to care for each other "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone," and to pray together for anything they need. When Peter asks Jesus how many times we must forgive, Jesus tells the powerful parable of the servant who is forgiven his debt but doesn't forgive his debtors. Jesus urges us to forgive from our hearts. Jesus tells his disciples about the sacredness of marriage. The disciples tried to prevent people from bringing children to Jesus and he said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

God's love belongs to all of us, according to the readings of the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Isaiah, God promises "my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples." Paul, in his Letter to the Romans, tells us "the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable" and refers to himself as the "apostle to the Gentiles." In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus hears the pleas of a "foreign" woman, a Canaanite who begs Jesus to heal her daughter.

Announcement!

On Saturday morning, August 13th @ 7:00 am there will be an information and organizational meeting of the proposed Men's Club/Prayer and Service Group. If you are at all interested in being a part of such a group, please try to attend this organizational meeting and provide input into the structure and purpose of the group. Please note that if this Men's group does organize, the meetings will not necessarily be on a Saturday. As this is a meeting to determine if such a group is of interest and to determine its purpose and structure, there is no additional information at this time. Meeting will be held in the Social Hall, breakfast will be provided. John Meyers will preside at the organizational meeting.

Announcing.....

Church Picnic

Our second annual "End of Summer"
Picnic-Family Night!
Wednesday, August 17th at 6 pm.

Kick back and enjoy the end of summer with our church family. Please join us for Mass, a picnic covered-dish supper, then free-play or board games for the children and relaxation and delightful conversation (or board games) for the adults.

We ask each family to bring two covered dishes to share. We also ask that each family plan to remove their serving dishes after the meal (to their vehicle or a cooler) and help with cleanup so that everyone can quickly get comfortable inside or out to enjoy the blessed fellowship of our church family.

Please see or call Janet Samson (396-365-4049) if you have ideas or suggestions. Think about your covered dishes as we will have a sign-up sheet available soon. Also, you may want to start gathering your play equipment and board games for that night!

Religious Education

Registration for Religious Education will begin in mid August.
Religious Education will begin in mid September.

Needs for Religious Education

Our parish has an active education and children's ministry. As part of this ministry we are always in need of items to reward our children. You can help by saving many little items for us. Please leave them at the office or give to Janet Samson.

- ◆ Mail Trinkets (holy cards, stickers, medals, key-rings, etc. sent to you in mailings)
- ◆ Happy meal type toys and other small toys
- ◆ Small school supplies
- ◆ Games and activities
- ◆ Any types of religious articles
- ◆ Books

ANNOUNCEMENT

San Juan Angels of Mercy are gathering school supplies for our parish families for the upcoming school year. These supplies will be available to those families with school aged children on August 7th and August 14th. If anyone wishes to donate to the school supplies, you may drop donations off at the church office between 8:30 and 12:30 during the week or on Sunday.
