

Lord, you return gladly and lovingly to lift up the one who offends you, but I do not turn to raise and honor the one who annoys me.
Saint John of the Cross
Señor, tú vuelves con alegría y amor para levantar a quien te ofende, pero yo no me vuelvo para levantar y honrar a quien me molesta.

Prayer Series Continues Next Week

The second half of Fr. Bob's series on prayer will run five consecutive Wednesday's at 6:30pm in the Faith Formation Building starting May 21st and ending June 18th. Topics will be Lectio Divina, Praying Without Ceasing, An Explanation of the Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, and a Q&A/Grab-bag for the last session.

What's HAPPENING?

Why Should You Opt-in to Flocknote? To hear all the news about the construction!

The construction crew is getting ready to pour the new concrete footers needed to properly support a new beam that will, in turn, properly support the hall roof. Because of the hazards being created by this work (especially the holes in the floor), the general contractor (and I) want to avoid having members of our community walking through the construction area

God bless, Fr. Bob

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus said to his disciples:]
"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."
- Jn 14:26-27a

Exploring the Documents of Vatican II
“...a sure compass
by which to take our bearings...”
POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. To obtain an indulgence, the usual conditions need to also be met. One of the avenues to gain a plenary indulgence during this Jubilee Year of Hope is to participate in a diocesan sponsored formation opportunity on the Vatican II documents. The Office of Christian Formation is providing this opportunity.
